SPECIFIC COURSES

To complement our range of courses, we offer you the possibility of choosing within the format of our courses, the specialities of Spanish for business or Spanish for tourism, not only with classes adapted to each level, but also with visits to companies in the tourism sector or contact with business people and entrepreneurs, which will help to motivate our students. Cuenca is a city with a lot of national and service tourism, which is a great advantage when it comes to immersion in everyday life and the world of work. You will be able to practice what you have learnt on a day-to-day basis during your stay.

Business Spanish

CONTENTS

Our course is designed for both students and professionals from levels A1 on the CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) who want to train in the thematic areas of business and commerce. We cover important aspects of current correspondence and the service sector in Spain and Latin America. In this course the development of linguistic strategies necessary to function in the business world will be worked on. The contents are organized through the subject areas of the business and the level of the student: Greetings and introductions, an interview / Resume, the office, correspondence, how a business works (based on real business examples).

Spanish for Tourism

CONTENTS

Our course is designed for both students and professionals from levels A1 on the CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). We prioritise communication, working on interculturality in practical situations in the world of tourism. This includes the learning and use of tourism lexicon for basic levels and an expansion and consolidation at higher levels. Written expression is also worked on in this specific course, as it is required in this area. The contents are organized through tourism topic areas such as the hotel, travel agencies, tourist fairs or tourist offices.
