TEACHER TRAINING

This course is specifically designed for teachers (or future teachers) of Spanish as a Foreign Language (ELE). The goal of this training is to eliminate all doubts, but also to strengthen knowledge and deepen your understanding of the language. Private classes enable the student to feel more confident and to work more intensively. You will be able to acquire new ideas, materials or tools for your classes (or future classes) at the source. Another advantage of private lessons is that you will not be tempted to speak in a language other than Spanish. The content is individually designed and fully adapted to the needs of the student. To guarantee this, a survey is made in advance of the teachers participating in the course. We have implemented Comenius programs: 2.2. We successfully collaborate in EU Programs, such as "Project Allegro".
